

Lisa Tofil, JD

Partner

Holland & Knight LLP

Tofil is a member of Holland & Knight's public policy and regulation group, where her practice focuses on federal relations and policy in health care, emergency medical services, and transportation issues. She provides strategic planning, advocacy, and legal assistance to clients on a broad range of legislative and regulatory matters. As a member of the firm's health care and life sciences team, which is one of the largest and most sophisticated in the country, she has extensive experience representing state and national health care organizations and individual hospitals and health systems. Before joining the firm, she served in several in-house hospital senior government relations and legal positions.

Tofil is an experienced advocate for numerous health care issues and programs, including graduate medical education, biomedical research, transplantation, health resources, and public records and open meetings laws.
