Meghan Walsh, MD, MPH

Chief Academic Officer
Hennepin Health System

Dr. Meghan Walsh oversees the medical education programs at Hennepin County Medical Center, a 430- bed, Level 1 Trauma Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In this role, she has transformed onboarding and compliance training for resident physicians into inter-professional, simulation-based training in a new, state of the art, million dollar simulation center. She also designed and facilitated a Physician Leadership Academy which targeted 28 emerging leaders with the goal of creating greater capacity for physicians to lead at HCMC. She has continues to lead in the area of leveraging innovative technology for educational redesign.

Dr. Walsh received her MD from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, her MPH from Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health, and completed her residency in Internal Medicine at Hennepin County Medical Center.
