

AMERICA'S ESSENTIAL
HOSPITALS

Brandy Bryant, MPH

Project Manager, Antimicrobial Stewardship & Quality
UCLA Department of Quality Management

Brandy Bryant has over eight years of project management experience in healthcare and academic environments, combining high-level programmatic steering knowledge with deep operational experience and cross-functional communication abilities. She has extensive experience improving procedures, establishing protocols, managing teams, maintaining compliance, and maximizing performance.

Brandy received her Master of Public Health, Health Services Management from University of California, Los Angeles and her Bachelors degree in economics from Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. She has also received a Certificate in Health Care Management and Leadership from UCLA.