V-Formation

Lisa R. Sloane, MHA, is founder of Lisa R. Sloane, LLC, and healthcare transformation initiatives: Multimedia in Healthcare and V-Formation. Multimedia in Healthcare develops digital solutions for training staff and consumers on healthcare topics specific to achieving better care and lower costs. Via e-Learning modules, webinars, videos, apps, and games, Multimedia in Healthcare produces both turnkey and customized learning solutions. V-Formation is a consultancy firm focused on developing support and resources for health system tests of change.

Lisa R. Sloane, LLC is currently developing a race, ethnicity, and language data collection eLearning module for America's Essential Hospitals. A similar module created by Sloane is used in 15 hospitals and more than 100 primary care practices throughout the greater Cincinnati region.

Lisa R. Sloane holds a Master of Health Administration degree from The Ohio State University. She adores experiencing life with family and friends. She is a jazz aficionado, fashionista and fitness buff residing in the beautiful and historic city of Cincinnati, Ohio.
