Anne Aulisio, RN, MSN
Patient Safety Officer
MetroHealth Medical Center

Aulisio oversees, promotes, and participates in the development and implementation of patient safety activities throughout the MetroHealth System in Cleveland, Ohio. She manages a systematic approach to improving health care safety by collaborating with a multidisciplinary team to identify and correct root causes of errors; implement systems to prevent errors; and subscribe to the principles of responsible reporting of adverse occurrences, near misses, and safety concerns. She also chairs committees and is a master trainer for Team Strategies and Tools to Enhance Performance and Patient Safety (TeamSTEPPS). During her clinical nursing career, Aulisio served as a staff nurse in various areas. Aulisio earned a master of science degree in nursing from Walden University, a bachelor of nursing degree from Bowling Green State University, and an associate's degree in nursing from Cuyahoga County Community College.
